Use the space below to tell us more about you, your art, and this piece. How long have you been doing this type of art or craft? What was your inspiration for this piece? Is there anything special to tell about this piece? This information will be used to let visitors to the exhibit know a little more about you and your artwork. This information will also be used in the calendar.

Artwork Release:

I understand that every effort will be made to treat my artwork with respect and care. However, I release Greencroft Communities Inc. from all claims related to my artwork while it is in their possession, except in the case of gross negligence or intentional misconduct. I understand that my artwork will be exhibited at Greencroft Goshen. I understand that entries receiving awards will appear in a Greencroft Communities calendar with artist acknowledgments.

Art Contest & Exhibit Guidelines:

The contest is open to amateur artists from Elkhart County. The artist must have completed the work when he/she was at least 55 years old, and within the past 10 years. Up to three entries may be submitted, one application per entry. Professional artists are invited to exhibit their work, but it will not be judged as part of the contest. Artwork that was entered in a previous year's contest may be re-entered if the piece has not won a First-Place award. Each entry is eligible to win in one category only, and one prize overall. Closed judging will take place late afternoon on Wed., May 25. Visitors coming to the exhibit will vote for the People's Choice Award (winner announced after the contest). All other winners will be announced at the Opening Reception on Thurs., May 26.

All entry forms must be submitted before Fri., May 6. Artwork should be brought to the Greencroft Goshen Community Center, 1820 Greencroft Blvd., Goshen, on Tues., May 24, between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m.

For more information call Amy Willhelm at 537-4096; or Vickie Layman 537-4090.

Please DO NOT bring your artwork before May 24, as storage space is extremely limited.
